Today the state GOP is pushing an election audit to bolster the dangerous lie that the 2020 election was stolen.

Right now there's an "audit the vote" rally at the capitol.

The right to vote is sacred. We must reject these efforts—our democracy only works when we can all vote.

Our democracy shouldn't be this fragile. Without the governor, we'd be a poster state for voter suppression.

There's also no good reason why 'For the People' isn't the law of the land. A senate majority is fine, but a pro-democracy majority is necessary for our future.

Today Ron Johnson voted 'no' to bipartisan legislation that would build critical infrastructure and 'no' to good-paying jobs for working class people.

Ron Johnson used his office to enrich some of his wealthiest campaign donors while raising taxes on the middle class & widening the income inequality gap. Hardworking Wisconsinites need a Senator who puts them first — Ron Johnson has failed that test.

Ron Johnson used his office to enrich some of his wealth est campaign donors while raising taxes on the middle class & widening the income inequality gap Hardwork ng Wisconsin tes need a Senator who puts them first Ron Johnson has failed that test.

@TheOtherMande a

This is yet another reason why we must defeat Ron Johnson and repeal the Trump tax giveaway to the ultra-wealthy, so we can finally cut taxes on working Wisconsin families.

I'm excited to announce that 12 Wisconsin legislators have endorsed our campaign, and I'm so proud to add their names to our quickly growing list of supporters. Together, we'll do big bold things again and change the game for people across Wisconsin!

Obviously we can't just stop bad weather from happening, but I hope people know about the resiliency provisions in the green new deal, or the the smart grid technology portion. All things that were also included in our Climate Change Task Force recommendations.

Humbling memories from three years ago this week. Thankful to Democrats across Wisconsin who trusted me as their LG nominee. We defied the odds, were outspent over 3 to 1, and earned 68% of the vote, won 71 of 72 counties - 47 counties with more than 60% of the vote. Thank you!

The American and Afghan lives lost in this decades long war is devastating. As we move forward, WI has committed to welcoming Afghans who have braved so much, and need protection now. This is absolutely the right thing to do. I know they'll be welcomed with respect and empathy.

Republicans have been methodically working to hijack legislative districts with surgical precision.

This is blatant voter suppression, and it's unacceptable. It’s time for maps that reflect the will of Wisconsin voters, not partisan vote rigging.

Ron Johnson admitted he didn't even read the infrastructure bill he voted against.

So? I sent him a copy of the bill in hopes that he'll finally read it. Maybe he'll even change his mind. I'm not holding out hope — but if he doesn't want to do the job then I will.

This is pathetic. Imagine being the most powerful republican in the state and spending your time getting flown out to respond to the ego of a defeated president instead of meeting the very real needs of people at home.

JR Ross @jrosswrites

@SpeakerVos says he flew to Alabama today to meet with former President Trump to provide deta s of "our robust efforts n Wisconsin to restore full integrity and trust in elections." Trump has pressured Vos past on efforts to review '20 elect on results.

I'm excited to announce that 12 Wisconsin legislators have endorsed our campaign, and I'm so proud to add their names to our quickly growing list of supporters. Together, we'll do big bold things again and change the game for people across Wisconsin!

Today the House voted on the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act . The good news? It passed.

Meaningful legislation starts with ending the filibuster.

A big congratulations to [redacted] on his nomination as the next US Ambassador to Luxembourg. I served as an intern in his office after college and later as receptionist. I'm incredibly thankful for that opportunity. I know first hand how hard he works. I wish him all the best!

My prayers are with the families of all who lost their lives and those who were injured in Afghanistan today. The cost of war is much more than the money spent, it's the countless lives we continue to lose. We need to get everyone who has served and helped our country to safety.

It's time to immediately end the filibuster and make Roe law of the land.

Next: we must pass HR-1 and the John Lewis VRA to protect voting rights and ensure fair maps are drawn. R's are working to hijack districts to keep passing laws like SB8 in TX.

This is how we stop them.

Nearly 50 people have died from Hurricane Ida. "Historic" flooding left people trapped in their basements, cars —and with a crippled infrastructure system, thousands without transportation as the subways flooded for the 3rd time this summer alone.

New poll has Mandela as the clear frontrunner with a 29-point lead. To highlight just a bit he is...

- Winning every media market in WI
- Leads among men (+26) and women (+27)
- Wins Dems, young people, voters over 50 (+25), non-college voters (+26)

Looks like #Mandelmentum..

The endorsement by Senator Elizabeth Warren of Wisconsin Lieutenant Governor Mandela Barnes in the Democratic primary for the US Senate is a very big deal. It helps @TheOtherMandela to confirm his position as a progressive with significant traction in a crowded contest.

I've been on BadgerCare, and I've seen how critical it is for working people.

I believe everyone should have access to quality health care.

But here's the problem:

Wisconsin is one of only 12 states that have failed to expand Medicaid, all because of GOP obstruction.

If we were to take this simple step, we could lower our state's uninsured rate dramatically and expand affordable health coverage to tens of thousands of our neighbors.

I won't say I'm surprised.

McConnell says if the GOP takes back the Senate in '22, he's not ruling anything in or out about how to handle nominations.

You know exactly what that means.

We need to win this Senate seat in Wisconsin. Join us:

Burgess Everett @b urgessev
The biggest prize is confirmation power. What happens f there s a vacancy and McConnel s majority leader?

"Cross those bridges when I get there, we are focusing on '22 I don't rule.

. is one of the architects of this partisan Supreme Court enabling the unconstitutional attack on reproductive freedom in Texas and across the country.

Proud we're fighting back. In the Senate, I'll continue to defend reproductive freedoms.

What a beautiful fall day for a meet and greet with the Brookfield Action Team. I'm so impressed by the work they do. We had a great conversation about the need for change in the US Senate and how we can work together to make it happen. I was also honored to meet "Buddy"!

The wealthiest 400 families in the US pay an average income tax rate of 8.2%, while the middle class is fighting to get by.

That's unacceptable. Everyone deserves to work a good paying job, have a quality education, and an opportunity at the American Dream.

Growing up, my dad worked on an assembly line; my mom taught in Milwaukee public schools. They provided us a middle class life. Too often, that isn't the case anymore. Hard work isn't paying off like it used to. I'm running for U.S. Senate to change that.

Ron Johnson has spent his career passing tax breaks for his wealthy donors – and for himself.

This is exactly why we need change in Washington.

People need higher wages and in Wisconsin, like many other states (and federally), Republicans have refused to raise the minimum wage.

There are real challenges. People can't get ahead, and the GOP only blames our side because they're responsible for it.

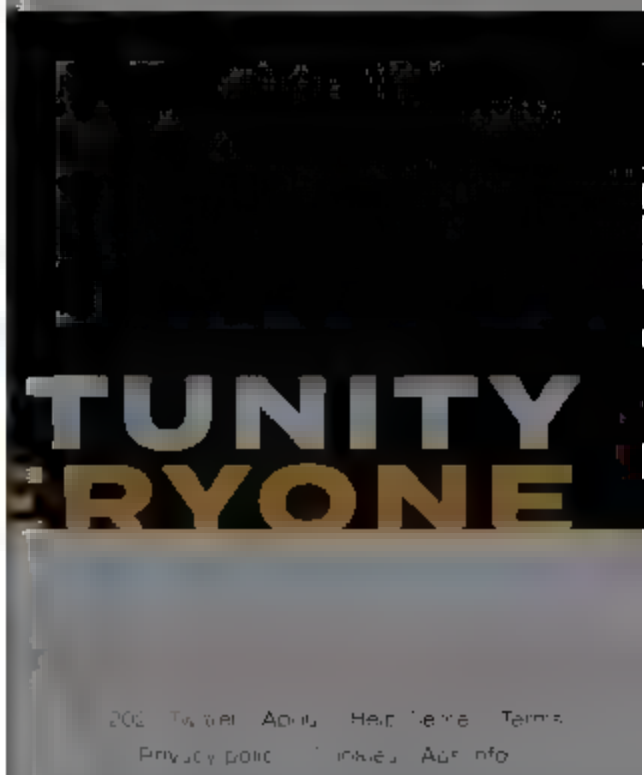
Billions allocated for Wisconsin to:



- Repair roads and bridges.
- Expand broadband and help low-income people afford internet access.
- Ensure safe drinking water is accessible regardless of your zip code.

That's what Ron Johnson voted against.

If passed this measure would aim to cut electricity production emissions by 80% before the end of the decade. To not pass this is dangerous for the future of every Wisconsinite, from farmers facing drought to kids in the cities suffering from asthma.

Ron Johnson didn't even bother to read the bipartisan infrastructure bill.

Now he's saying the quiet part out loud: he's "hoping" and "praying" for gridlock.

Senator, the politics of obstruction have no place in WI. Either step up for Wisconsin families...Or get out of the way.

Black people are six percent of the population in Wisconsin, but we comprise 42 percent of the prison population.

And Black Wisconsinites are incarcerated at 12X the rate of white Wisconsinites, a rate of disproportion that is more than double the national average. 2/6

I've seen the system rip families apart & limit communities.

Today, WI has the highest incarceration rate for Black adults in the country.

This isn't new, but it is unacceptable.

We're at an inflection point in America. While some are hellbent on protecting rights, others are hellbent on expanding their power over others. Justice Sotomayor says exactly why SCOTUS' failure to act is so devastating.

* * *

There are women in Texas who became pregnant on or around the day that S. B. 8 took effect. As I write these words, some of those women do not know they are pregnant. When they find out, should they wish to exercise their constitutional right to seek abortion care, they will be unable to do so anywhere in their home State. Those with sufficient resources may spend thousands of dollars and multiple days anxiously seeking care from out-of-state providers so overwhelmed with Texas patients that they cannot adequately serve their own communities. Those without the ability to make this journey, whether due to lack of money or childcare or employment flexibility or the myriad other constraints that shape people's day-to-day lives, may be forced to carry to term against their wishes or resort to dangerous methods of self help. None of this is seriously in dispute.

These circumstances are exceptional. Women seeking abortion care in Texas are entitled to relief from this Court now. Because of the Court's failure to act today, that relief, if it comes, will be too late for many. Once again, I dissent.

Devastating. My heart is with the family as they mourn the tragic loss of Major Harris & his mom, Mallery Muenzenberger. It's so important that we focus on community centered approaches to break the cycle of violence, and ultimately save children's lives.

The insurrection took lives and left many more injured. How many people are in prison across this country because they were a party to a crime? Some only in the vicinity.

Any member of congress who participated is an accomplice to the greatest attack on democracy in our lifetime

It's time to step up and get this done now. No excuses.

Facebook isn't going to regulate themselves.

They enable hate speech, human trafficking, and drug sales.

Kids that use their platform are more likely to develop depression and eating disorders.

It's time to clean up Facebook, and hold them accountable.

Top execs from major oil companies will testify in Congress today—and we'll be listening closely. They've lied, deceived, and politicized climate change. Their lobbyists block action that would increase resilience and good jobs. There must be accountability.

That said, we have a nominee. I recognize the reservation some may have, and it's fair. However, not winning has never been a reason to give up. The vision doesn't die, you dust off and try again. Last thing we need is for Trump to be in charge while we try to sort it all out.

That said, we have a nominee. I recognize the reservation some may have, and it's fair. However, not winning has never been a reason to give up. The vision doesn't die, you dust off and try again. Last thing we need is for Trump to be in charge while we try to sort it all out.

Folks from all over Wisconsin flooded the Capitol Thursday to testify against the extreme gerrymandered maps presented by the GOP.

Abortion would mmediately become illegal in 12 states if the Court overturned Roe v Wade Just last week, the Wisconsin GOP sent a slew of anti-abortion bills to Governor Evers desk.

That is what's at stake as the Supreme Court hears oral arguments on Texas

1 6 55

Mandela Barnes

@TheOtherMande a

Make no mistake: a majority of Wisconsinites support access to safe & legal abortion.

We will not let anyone interfere with a woman's constitutional right to make her own health decisions. We must end the filibuster and make Roe indisputable federal law.

Growing up, my dad worked on an assembly line for 30 years, my mom taught in Milwaukee public schools. They provided us with a middle class life. Too often, that isn't the case anymore. Hard work isn't paying off like it used to. I'm running for U.S. Senate to change that.

That said, we have a nominee. I recognize the reservation some may have, and it's fair. However, not winning has never been a reason to give up. The vision doesn't die, you dust off and try again. Last thing we need is for Trump to be in charge while we try to sort it all out.

When I lost a primary for state senate in 2016, I said the issues were there before me and would need to be addressed whether I was around or not. But I feel to have completely given up and walked away would have been to let down every person and cause I said I stood for.

When I lost a primary for state senate in 2016, I said the issues were there before me and would need to be addressed whether I was around or not. But I feel to have completely given up and walked away would have been to let down every person and cause I said I stood for.

Today, we pause to honor our veterans—people like my grandfather who served in the U.S. Navy. As we thank them, we must also recommit ourselves to ensuring they get the support they deserve when they come home. Read more about him & that commitment, here.

Veterans Day always makes me think of my grandfather who served in the navy & army, & after was able to get a good union job in Milwaukee. He taught me so many of the values he learned in service that motivate me today: work hard, give back, and never forget where you came from.

As of 2018 a typical member of Congress was 12x richer than the typical American household. More than half are millionaires.

This disconnect is why working people get left behind. The realities of working class people are largely ignored because decision makers cannot relate.

On a serious note, we have to beat back this nonsense to save our democracy. We have real problems to fix, not his personal election insecurity.

We have a difficult road to justice in America, and the verdicts we just witnessed in the Kyle Rittenhouse trial are just another example. While we can easily view this as a setback, we have to transform this moment. My full statement:

"Over the last few weeks, many dreaded the outcome we just witnessed. The presumption of innocence until proven guilty is what we should expect from our judicial system, but that standard is not always applied equally. We have seen so many black and brown youth killed, only to be put on trial posthumously, while the innocence of Kyle Rittenhouse was virtually demanded by the judge.

This is another example of the difficult road to justice in America, and while we can easily view this as a setback, we have to turn this into a moment to push even harder by staying engaged, by organizing for justice, by holding our leaders accountable, and by registering our friends and neighbors to vote. As elected leaders, myself and others have a special responsibility to lift up the voices of organizers, activists, and everyday people working for change. We must transform moments like this by raising our voices, together.

Across Wisconsin and across the country, countless people are coming together in this moment to honor Jacob, Anthony, JoJo, and call for justice. Here is what gives me hope: We have seen communities – especially Kenosha – step up to demand action from those in power and work to bring about positive change. We have the power to elect leaders at every level who represent our highest aspirations, who will fight alongside us for reform and progress. We all have the power to heal Kenosha and our nation."

The enabling and empowerment of vigilantism, plus the sheer effort to defend the taking of life, is not something we should ever be comfortable with.

The first day of the trial may as well have come with a spoiler alert. The whole saga felt as it were directed from the bench.

We have a difficult road to justice in America, and the verdicts we just witnessed in the Kyle Rittenhouse trial are just another example. While we can easily view this as a setback, we have to transform this moment. My full statement:

"Over the last few weeks, many dreaded the outcome we just witnessed. The presumption of innocence until proven guilty is what we should expect from our judicial system, but that standard is not always applied equally. We have seen so many black and brown youth killed, only to be put on trial posthumously, while the innocence of Kyle Rittenhouse was virtually demanded by the judge.

This is another example of the difficult road to justice in America, and while we can easily view this as a setback, we have to turn this into a moment to push even harder by staying engaged, by organizing for justice, by holding our leaders accountable, and by registering our friends and neighbors to vote. As elected leaders, myself and others have a special responsibility to lift up the voices of organizers, activists, and everyday people working for change. We must transform moments like this by raising our voices together.

Across Wisconsin and across the country, countless people are coming together in this moment to honor Jacob, Anthony, JoJo, and call for justice. Here is what gives me hope: We have seen communities – especially Kenosha – step up to demand action from those in power and work to bring about positive change. We have the power to elect leaders at every level who represent our highest aspirations, who will fight alongside us for reform and progress. We all have the power to heal Kenosha and our nation."

But so many people have stepped up, in the spirit of building community. And when I think about who we are as a state, and what makes us strong, the resilience, the community, the caring for one another. That's what Wisconsin is at our core.

In Wisconsin alone, there are eleven federally recognized Native American nations and tribal communities, each with their own unique history. It's incumbent on all of us to educate ourselves, our families, and our communities about these nations and their stories.

Over the past four months we've seen incredible grassroots energy from around the state. We asked people around the state why they're supporting this campaign, and I was overwhelmed by the response..Thank you for your support Erik!

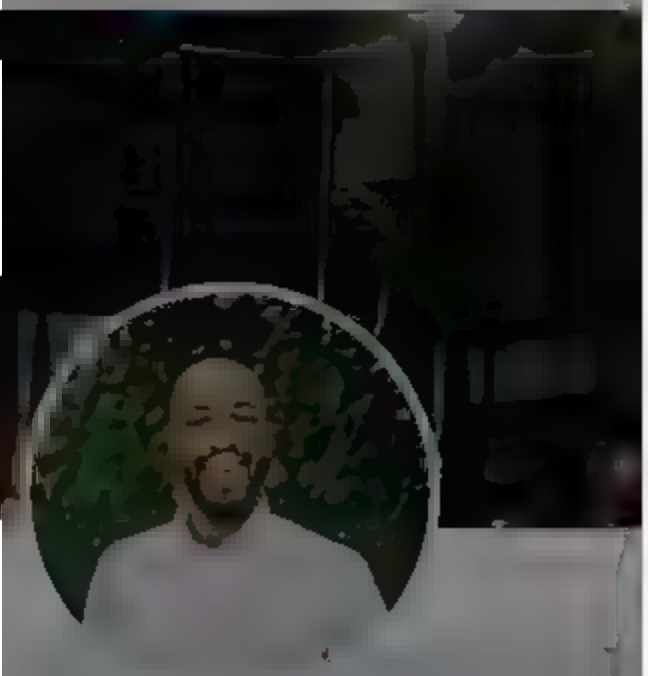
I'm the son of a teacher and a third shift UAW worker, and my journey is only possible because of the opportunity those jobs provided my family.



For far too many, those opportunities no longer exist. I'm running for the US Senate to change that.

Are you with me?

No one not a justice, not a politician, not a pundit has any right to interfere a woman's constitutional right to make her own health care decisions. That's why I'm committed to ending the filibuster and voting to make abortion rights the law of the land.

It looks like this fight may be lost already. Time to refocus on sex education, easy access to highly effective birth control and making it so pregnancy, childbirth and infant care dont drive people into poverty. Don't need to worry about access if abortion is unnecessary

The closest you can ever come to being at your own funeral and hearing what people say about you is having friends blurb your book. 10/10 recommend

Today marks the 80th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor. We remember and honor all who lost their lives that day and who have fought to defend us. Many Wisconsinites and their families were forever impacted that day, here are some of their stories:

The expanded Child Tax Credit has helped cut child poverty in half, reduced food insecurity, and made it easier to put food on the table this holiday season.

Not a single Wisconsin Republican voted to cut taxes for working families. I did and I'm working to extend them.

Make no mistake - democracy is on the ballot in 2022.

I have a plan to crack down on special interests, end the filibuster, pass a new voting rights act, and make sure every elected official is held accountable to voters.

Let's build a working government for working people.

My person of the year? Your kids' school bus driver. Our neighbors working multiple jobs to pay the bills. The nurse that administered our vaccines.

This is monumental & removes a huge barrier to access, especially for women of color, lower-income women, and women in rural areas who can't travel or take off work or who prefer to telehealth doctor visits.

This is monumental & removes a huge barrier to access, especially for women of color, lower-income women, and women in rural areas who can't travel or take off work or who prefer to telehealth doctor visits

We will not let one lone senator stall what the American people want and voted for.

I will be that vote.

That might be good news for his big donors and special interests who have made a killing off his time in Washington, but Wisconsinites want a Senator who will stand up for them.

I just told how I feel tonight:

If we're going to rebuild our middle class, it's ALL going to come down to Wisconsin.

We have to fire Ron Johnson.

My thoughts are with congregation Beth Israel and everyone in Colleyville, Texas. This is an unacceptable act of violence in a holy place.

In Q3 we broke fundraising records in Wisconsin. Thanks to all of you, we surpassed those totals in Q4!

You stepped up, you volunteered, you donated. Not once, not twice, but more and more than that. We have built the grassroots movement that will beat Ron Johnson in November.

marks the liberation of Auschwitz. Less than a century ago, 6+ million people died at the hands of anti-Semitism, bigotry, and hate.

When we say Never Forget, we recommit to our shared responsibility: to stop these atrocities from happening ever again.

Attacks on unions have led to a decline in union membership, and ultimately the gutting of the middle class.

Unions give families opportunity, just like the one I grew up in.

Wisconsin Lt. Gov. @TheOtherMandela, who is running for U.S. Senate, says GOP Sen. Ron Johnson has "forgotten who he was elected to represent," spending his time peddling conspiracy theories about the 2020 election and trying to undermine democracy. on.msnbc.com/3outFU3

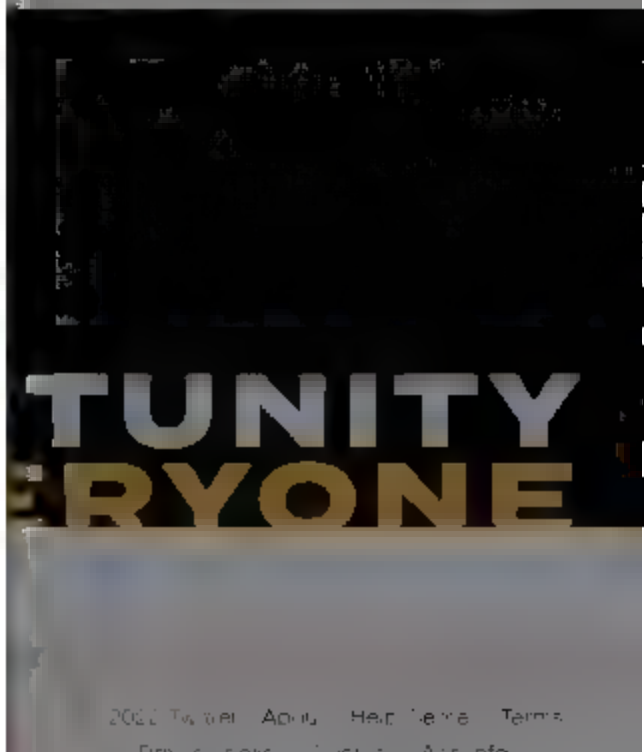
Never thought I'd run a race ON the water but there was a 5K across frozen Lake Mendota today. Did pretty good in the Shaun White category 🙃



Huge shoutout to for organizing an incredible event to protect our lakes (5,000 more than Minnesota boasts).

This is absurd. Ron Johnson just said he wouldn't lift a finger to make sure the new USPS truck is built here in Wisconsin. In Oshkosh, where he's from! He said "it's not like there aren't enough jobs here in Wisconsin." It's outrageous, and time for him to go.

Ron Johnson just said he wouldn't lift a finger to ensure 1,000 good paying union jobs are created in Wisconsin. Johnson even said "It's not like we don't have enough jobs here in Wisconsin." I've had enough. Wisconsinites are ready to elect someone who will actually do the job.

Ron Johnson is missing the point. These are quality, good paying union jobs. The kind of jobs you can raise a family on and build a middle-class life. This contract would have created 1,000 of those jobs. Ron Johnson is refusing to act and letting these jobs go out of state.

Happy National Wisconsin Day! The opportunities in our great state are the reason a kid from a middle class working family was able to go on to become Lt. Governor. In the Senate, I'll continue fighting to expand those same opportunities to every corner of Wisconsin.

I started this campaign to fight for the middle class. To bring opportunity to every corner of the state. In the Senate, I will always put Wisconsin first and never stop fighting to bring good jobs here. If Ron Johnson won't, I will.

Let's call this lack of access to affordable, high-quality child care what it is: a crisis.

On my first day in D.C., I will get to work solving it.

As we celebrate Black History Month, I want to take a moment to discuss this gentleman right here. In 1866, Ezekiel Gillespie sued the Board of Elections in WI for denying him a vote and took his case all the way to the WI Supreme Court.

When Ezekiel won, the Court established the right to vote for black Wisconsinites – and Ezekiel became the first black American to cast a ballot in WI.

The US is currently energy independent. This is good news – and if moving forward, we put some serious investment into renewable energy, we can stay independent and build a more sustainable, stable energy future. On Day 1 in DC, I will get to work on this.

Axios @axios
The U S. produced more petroleum than it consumed in 2020, and the numbers were essentially in balance in 2021, according to the Energy Information Administration.

A big thank you to all of these small business owners for sitting down with me to talk about the unique challenges that minority-owned businesses have faced—both before, and during, the pandemic; and how we can use this moment of recovery to address these issues head on.

We can't let Putin's aggression go unchecked. The time has come to deploy the harshest sanctions against Russia, Putin, and the oligarchs who support him.

Being a parent of a trans child is not a crime. This legislation is a disgrace, we have to commit to ensuring equal rights and protections are a reality for trans people at the federal level so this cannot happen.

> Erin, Trail Mom @ErinInTheMorn
> Greg Abbot has officially directed Family and Protective Services to begin investigating all trans children in Texas and prosecuting their parents as child abusers.

"Putin has violated international law, invading a sovereign and democratic nation that wants peace and independence. Putin's aggression has been met with sanctions, and his violent attack against Ukraine should be met with stronger sanctions, including a full set of punishing financial, technology, and military sanctions.

"I stand with the Ukrainian people and I believe we need to continue standing strong with our European allies and NATO by providing them the support they need to hold Putin accountable for the largest invasion of Europe since World War II."

Republicans now want to increase taxes for over 100 million Americans, including seniors and the middle class. Meanwhile, GOP special interest donors make out like bandits. We should be to helping build the middle class, not make it harder to get there.

During , I want to remember one of the greats—Hank Aaron. He not only smashed records and led the Milwaukee Braves to victory in the 1950s and 60s, he also did so in the face of enormous oppression on and off the field and paved the way for others to follow.

On World NGO Day, I'm applauding the organizations working tirelessly to uplift communities & tackle the world's toughest challenges. I'm especially thinking of the courageous personnel on the ground in Ukraine right now and those around the world dealing with the threat of war.

might officially be coming to an end today but for me, it's so much more than just a month. Each day we have an opportunity to learn about the contributions Black people have made to our country.

I've said it before and I'll say it again – UAW has been making high-quality vehicles in Oshkosh for over 80 years and this is a legacy that we will fight to continue. If you want these USPS trucks built right, build them right here in Wisconsin.

30 years ago, if you got up and went to work each day, you could make it into the middle class. Nowadays, for many people, no matter how hard you work – it can be nearly impossible. I'm running because that needs to change.

I'm so excited to have 's support. From her experience in the State Assembly, to opening and running her own business, to being a mom, she knows the issues that families face these days and why we need a Senator in Washington who will fight for them.

Mike Gableman and his GOP enablers in the legislature want to tell millions of Wisconsinites that their votes just don't count. And this is who Ron Johnson thinks should be in charge of our elections? Enough of this tax-payer funded farce.

I believe our best days of manufacturing in Wisconsin are ahead of us, not behind us. Let's bring these jobs to Oshkosh, and build the new postal vehicles with the same good union labor that has served this community and our state for over 80 years.

The accomplishments of President Biden's first year will provide critical infrastructure, clean water, access to broadband, and good jobs to thousands of Wisconsinites. But there's so much more to do to rebuild the middle class and to lower cost of living for American families.

And none of this gets done if we don't protect the right to vote. We have a lot of work ahead of us, but we have an opportunity each day to take the lessons of the past and apply them to the challenges of today, to make our future even brighter.

As I watched , I couldn't help but think about one person who will be there next year wearing the robe of a Supreme Court Justice. Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson is one of the brightest legal minds in our country, and I am thrilled that President Biden selected her.

As we celebrate Women's History Month, it's important for all of us to take time to learn more about the incredible women who have made Wisconsin the place it is today. Women like Vel Phillips, Ada Deer, Anita Herrara, and so many others.

We have to take serious action that will support our ag economy. In the Senate, I'll take up the 2023 Farm Bill and work to increase funding for programs like Rural Business Development Grants. Point blank, I'll work to create jobs, help families, and support farmers.

57 years ago today civil rights leaders were brutally attacked by police as they marched for voting rights in Selma. Their courage would lead to the passage of the Voting Rights Act, and "Bloody Sunday" would come to symbolize our struggle for voting rights in this country.

Want to jump start our economy? Give workers a long overdue raise. Raising the minimum wage to $15 an hour would help over 32 million American workers, many of them frontline and essential staff, and put $3,300 back into their pockets (and our economy) each year.

Want to jump start our economy? Give workers a long overdue raise. Raising the minimum wage to $15 an hour would help over 32 million American workers, many of them frontline and essential staff, and put $3,300 back into their pockets (and our economy) each year.

Absolutely! Put money in the hands of the consumer and our community wins! Our fellow states, west, east, and south, have higher minimum wages and have not fallen to shambles. We can't continue to put Wisconsin citizens last.

Want to jump start our economy? Give workers a long overdue raise. Raising the minimum wage to $15 an hour would help over 32 million American workers, many of them frontline and essential staff, and put $3,300 back into their pockets (and our economy) each year.

Absolutely! Put money in the hands of the consumer and our community wins! Our fellow states, west east, and south, have higher minimum wages and have not fallen to shambles. We can't continue to put Wisconsin citizens last.

There's a bill we can pass now called the Made in America Act. It would ensure materials used in federally funded infrastructure projects are Made in America. It's common sense.

It'll support small businesses, manufacturers, workers. And—it was sponsored by Sen Tammy Baldwin.

On Harriet Tubman Day, I am thinking about her voyages up through Milwaukee and into Canada on her mission to help over 70 enslaved people escape. Harriet Tubman's courage is a beacon now just as much as it was then – and I am proud of the role our state played in her legacy.

I stopped by in Green Bay today. What they do for the community is nothing short of amazing. Child care center, workforce development program, workout classes in English and Spanish, and even a Women's Career Closet – if you have any clothing to donate, please do!

The Violence Against Women Act. Aid to Ukraine. Funding for child care. All passed the Senate last night in a bipartisan 68-31 vote.

Ron Johnson voted No.

When someone shows you who they are, believe them.

Unbelievable. My prayers are with the people of Ukraine. No person should be subjected to this horror.

I'm so excited to have your endorsement . We have a vision for a future with opportunity. In the Senate, I will never stop fighting for good-paying jobs, quality child care, and to fix our supply chain issues so those opportunities exist in every corner of the state.

The GOP is fighting to overturn Roe v. Wade & restrict abortion access—we need Democrats in Congress who will fight them. I'm running for Senate to ensure no matter where you live, you have access to reproductive health care & abortion services. The stakes have never been higher.

We also talked about my experience as WI's first Black Lt. Gov – and how I want to use this role to break barriers and make sure that no matter who you are, you feel empowered to run for office one day if you choose. That's a huge part of providing opportunity for all.

I'm so excited to have [redacted]'s support. From her experience in the State Assembly, to opening and running her own business, to being a mom, she knows the issues that families face these days and why we need a Senator in Washington who will fight for them.

I'm so excited to have [redacted] 's support. From her experience in the State Assembly, to opening and running her own business, to being a mom, she knows the issues that families face these days and why we need a Senator in Washington who will fight for them.

I'm so excited to have [redacted]'s support. From her experience in the State Assembly, to opening and running her own business, to being a mom, she knows the issues that families face these days and why we need a Senator in Washington who will fight for them.

On Friday, I had a chance to sit down with local farmers in Beloit to discuss their top priorities and challenges – thank you to the Riemer Family Farm for hosting us! As WI's Senator, I will pass a fair Farm Bill that creates jobs and supports local and family farms like these.

It's great to see Senator Baldwin leading the charge here. I'd be proud to partner with her in the Senate to stand up to big oil companies, lower gas prices, and protect consumers.

> Sen. Tammy Baldwin @SenatorBa.dwin
> The Big Oil Windfall Profits Tax legislation I am supporting would protect consumers from giant oil companies taking advantage of world events to jack up prices for you and pump up profits for themselves. twitter.com/RBReich/status

Today marks the halfway point. 238 days since we launched this campaign. 238 days until Election Day. We've accomplished a lot, even during some difficult times. But when things are tough, we can't settle for what is, we have to reach for what can be. Are you with me?

Today marks the one-year anniversary of the Atlanta spa shootings which claimed the lives of eight people. It is a somber reminder of the discrimination and violence that the AAPI community has faced in this nation. We must commit ourselves to ending AAPI hate at every level.

That might not sound like a lot, but those of us who have worked hard for every dollar know that it adds up.

It's the amount that makes a difference. That's why I'm asking you to chip in today to help us beat Ron Johnson.

The only reason for the price gouging of insulin is corporate greed.

You just shouldn't have to choose between a life-saving medication and putting food on the table.

I applaud Senator Baldwin for cosponsoring legislation to cap insulin costs, in the Senate I will do the same.

If we make more products at home, inflation becomes less of a problem. Yet Ron Johnson backs outsourcing and says it's better to make things overseas. Someone doesn't seem to understand the assignment.

Ron Johnson
@RonJohnsonWI

Inflation is out of control and Democrats have no feasible plan to defeat it. While they continue to play partisan games, hard working middle class Americans will be bearing the brunt of it.

Mandela Barnes' campaign in WI-Sen out with a new poll from Impact Research showing the LG with a big lead even after his opponents have started advertising on TV. Primary is August 9.

Barnes 38
Lasry 17
Godlewski 9
Nelson 8

(3/16-23, 449 LVs, MoE 4.6%)

To: Interested Parties
Fr: Impact Research
Re: Mandela Barnes Remains Strong Favorite in Wisconsin Democratic Primary

Despite more than $5 million in unopposed statewide advertising by his multi-millionaire, self-funding opponents, Mandela Barnes remains the strong favorite of Democratic voters in Wisconsin. Barnes remains the most popular and well-known candidate and continues to lead the field by a wide margin, outpacing his nearest opponent by 21 points.

Barnes is known to nearly two-thirds of likely primary voters, who have an overwhelmingly positive view of him (56% favorable / 9% unfavorable). Since December, Alex Lasry's spending has helped him gain only modest support, increasing from 11% of the vote to 17% in this poll. Likewise, his name recognition has improved by 11 points, earning a 32% favorable / 10% unfavorable rating. Sarah Godlewski earns a rating of 24% favorable / 6% unfavorable and Tom Nelson is at 17% favorable / 5% unfavorable.

Even with $5 million in unopposed advertising by my self-funding opponents, voters believe I'm the one to send Ron Johnson packing.

Reminder that Ron Johnson's solution to the child care crisis is to force struggling moms to take care of other people's kids.

As your Senator, I'll invest in child care and make sure hard-working parents get the support they need

Inflation is the biggest issue on people's minds right now (rightfully so).

How do we fix it? Make more products here. Improve supply chains. Invest in local businesses and workers. Raise wages.

Nothing better for 🇺🇸 than ending monopoly control and protecting competition and innovation.

Big tech has consolidated and monopolized the marketplace for too long without laws to reign them in. It's time for congress to pass legislation.

This is great news. I've been going to these historic venues since growing up in Milwaukee, and all they do is made possible because of their workers. This is going to make their partnership even stronger. Plus, you're in great hands with [redacted]. Solidarity!

This is absurd. Ron Johnson just said he wouldn't lift a finger to make sure the new USPS truck is built here in Wisconsin. In Oshkosh, where he's from! He said "it's not like there aren't enough jobs here in Wisconsin." It's outrageous, and time for him to go.

This is absurd. Ron Johnson just said he wouldn't lift a finger to make sure the new USPS truck is built here in Wisconsin. In Oshkosh, where he's from! He said "it's not like there aren't enough jobs here in Wisconsin." It's outrageous, and time for him to go.

This is absurd. Ron Johnson just said he wouldn't lift a finger to make sure the new USPS truck is built here in Wisconsin. In Oshkosh, where he's from! He said "it's not like there aren't enough jobs here in Wisconsin." It's outrageous, and time for him to go.

The historic vote to confirm Judge Brown Jackson takes place today.

I know exactly how I would cast my vote, and I sincerely hope the Senate will rise to this momentous occasion.

Our farmers feed the country and are a pillar of our state's economy, but corporate consolidation, bad trade deals, and climate change have put them on the back foot. So I'm hitting the road to hear more about the challenges they face, and what they want me to fight for in DC.

If Democrats didn't show up in Georgia last year, we would have never been able to say the words Justice Brown Jackson today.

Don't let anyone tell you we don't have something to fight for right now. Everything is on the line.

CEOs make 351 times more than their average worker. That number has grown by 1322% in the last 40 years.

We need strong unions. We need higher wages. We need to make sure billionaires and big corporations pay their fair share.

We're on the moo-ve! We're hitting the road to meet with family farmers, meat processors, and ag businesses. They're the backbone of our economy and I'm committed to looking out for them (not the big corps). If you'd like us to stop by, let us know! 🐄🚚

Black women are 3x more likely to die than white women during child birth.

Let me say that again. 3x more likely to die.

This is structural inequality and it's going to take work and maternal health care investments to fix it.

Local and family farms are the heart of who we are. And when you get down to it, the challenges people face in cities and in rural areas aren't so different. Neither are their hopes and dreams. Thanks to Kat, Stacey, and everyone who talked with me today at Cattail Organic Farms!

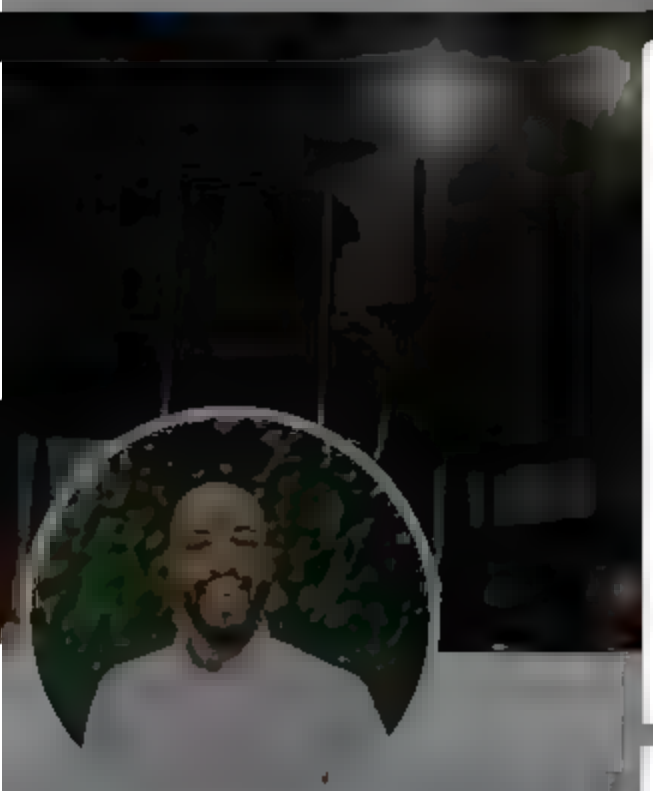
Happy and humbled to report in quarter one of this year we:

- Raised $1.7 million (our highest ever)
- Had an average contribution of LESS THAN $40 (our lowest ever)
- Nearly 44,000 individual donations
- Not one dime in Corporate PAC $$



We couldn't have done it without YOU.

What I love most about traveling the state is finding shared experiences with people everywhere I go. Like Chris. Our dads both worked at Delphi. A job that gave us a fair shot at the American dream.

This March, election officials threw out 13% of all mail-in ballots in Texas. A year ago, the rejection rate was less than 2%. A community that was hit incredibly hard by this? Americans with disabilities who rely on mail-in voting.

The GOP will not stop their campaign to restrict the right to vote, which includes these tactics that disproportionately harm folks with disabilities. We must put a stop to it.

This self-serving, pay-to-pay corruption from Sen. Johnson is why he'll be replaced in November by Mandela Barnes.

That math doesn't add up.

The House just passed a bill to cap insulin costs at $35/month. Now it heads to the Senate. This is a matter of life and death, and there's no excuse to vote anything other than aye.

America is innovation.
America is opportunity.
America is local and independent businesses.
America is family farms.
America is NOT massive monopolies and big corporations that can do whatever they want whenever they want.

Each and every day, I'm proud to be from Milwaukee. A great city on a Great Lake with coffee culture, an NBA championship, Hup's Pizza (iykyk), can't forget the Brewers or the drive, vision, and resilience. Happy 414 day to the city that made me who I am.

Ron Johnson just raised $7.1 million.

He delivered millions in tax breaks for his donors, and they're paying him back...with interest.

10 years ago, I kicked off my campaign for the WI State Assembly. It's been the honor of a lifetime to fight for working Wisconsinites for the last decade. We're gonna take that fight to the US Senate

If Democrats didn't show up in Georgia last year, we would have never been able to say the words Justice Brown Jackson today.

Don't let anyone tell you we don't have something to fight for right now. Everything is on the line.

And I have a vision for next year. Instead of electing Ron Johnson so he can save himself $$$ while raising taxes for the middle class, let's pass working-class tax relief. Let's bring back the child tax credit. Let's pass the billionaire minimum income tax.

The GOP has made it quite clear that they're giving this race everything they've got. And the US Senate is on the line.

But we're not backing down. We'll show them you can't buy an election. We'll show them what a true grassroots movement looks like.

I was born in the heart of Milwaukee on 26th and Locust. I visited every county in WI before I got in this race.

What I learned is this: the rural/urban divide is an attempt to divide us—we have so much more that unites us. And we all share hopes and dreams for a better future.

2021 was the most profitable year for corporate America since 1950.

You know what else surged? The cost of living. Consumer prices are up almost 8%.

Make no mistake: Wealthy CEOs are making a fat profit by exploiting working Americans.

Many farmers can't make ends meet from farming alone. So the Wegmueller's opened their farm to the community so people can learn about their work. What Dan and his family are doing is nothing short of amazing - and a reminder of how much more we must do to support our farmers.

This race is personal to me for a lot of reasons. The people Ron Johnson has left behind — the people he abandoned so he could serve his big $$$ donors — they're my family. They're my community. They're middle-class people just like me all across Wisconsin.

13 years. That's how long it's been since the federal minimum wage was raised. The LONGEST period in American history.

People are struggling. Inflation is high, and wages are low. Families cannot get by on $7.25 an hour.

Today, thousands of people in WI do not have access to clean water due to PFAS. Unacceptable.

This , I am calling on lawmakers on both sides to protect our state. WI has a proud tradition as a leader in the fight for clean water, and it's time for us to lead again.

Good to be back at [redacted]. We had a chance to discuss how parents are struggling to find child care—and child care providers are struggling to find staff.

We have to set the next generation up for success. We can't do that without addressing the child care crisis.

If Democrats didn't have control of the Senate, Ron Johnson and the GOP would've successfully stripped away which provides birth control access, cancer screenings, STI treatment/testing, and more.

Meanwhile, the average American family will be paying $5200 more just for basic necessities this year than they did last year.

Make it make sense.

If Democrats didn't show up in Georgia last year, we would have never been able to say the words Justice Brown Jackson today.

Don't let anyone tell you we don't have something to fight for right now. Everything is on the line.

My parents' union jobs were our ticket to the middle class. But those opportunities just don't exist in the same way today.

I'm going to the Senate because every single family deserves a chance at that ticket.

Wealthy people have always been able to access abortions. If SCOTUS overturns Roe, it is women of color, working-class women, and victims of abuse who will suffer. People's lives will be lost.

I'm old enough to remember life before Roe. I hustled up money and used the women's health fund to get an abortion in New York. For me, a poor Black woman, that was the only way I could receive abortion care.

I never want young women to experience what I or others went through.

A post-Roe America would be a cruel one. 26 states are poised to restrict abortion access as soon Roe is overturned. Millions of women would be stripped of their access to abortion – and will suffer and even die because of it. The Senate must act now.

Today, we mourn and recognize the thousands of indigenous women across the US who have been murdered or declared missing. Indigenous women are murdered at a rate 10 times the national average, and it's going to take education and action to put this to an end.

When I was in my twenties, I broke my arm. It took me years to pay off that bill.

And I can't even tell you how many people have told me they're in the same situation. In the richest nation in the world, no one should ever struggle just to pay their hospital bills.

We cannot let the GOP drag us into the past. There will be a huge cost for millions of people. We need to stand up to the GOP, end the filibuster, and pass Senator Baldwin's Women's Health Protection Act – there is not a moment to waste.

NowThis @nowthisnews
Sen. Tammy Baldwin said if Roe v. Wade is overturned, reproductive rights in Wisconsin will revert back to a law from 1849 — that's one year after Wisconsin originally became a U.S. state

Pregnancy-related deaths could rise up to 20% if Roe is struck down, according to experts. When we restrict abortion access, we not only strip people of their autonomy and their right to choose – we endanger their lives.

Ron Johnson just said that the 6,000 abortions that occur annually in WI are "6,000 too many" and that overturning Roe was a "long time coming".

He does not deserve to represent this state — especially the thousands of people he will harm by restricting abortion access.

The third shift at a factory is from 11 PM to 7 AM. That's the shift that my dad worked for years. It wasn't easy, but it was our family's ticket to the middle class.

Let me say that again: parents are rationing baby formula.

American families cannot and should not ever have to endure this. They need access to affordable formula. Now.

Big Oil has used this time of crisis to profit off of the American people. It's not right – they are lining their pockets with the $$$ that working people have to pay at the gas pump.

Senator Baldwin just introduced a bill to put a stop to it. I, for one, cannot wait to sign on.

We're going to send Ron Johnson packing in November. But first, we need to make sure we're on the ballot. Sign up to collect nomination signatures this month!

Ron Johnson just said that the 6,000 abortions that occur annually in WI are "6,000 too many" and that overturning Roe was a "long time coming".

He does not deserve to represent this state — especially the thousands of people he will harm by restricting abortion access.

In the State Assembly, I was proud to stand with organized labor as Scott Walker tried to decimate WI unions. In 2018, we kicked him out of office for good.

Now, I'm proud to take that same fight to the US Senate to stand up for working people and their right to organize.

My mom was a schoolteacher at Milwaukee Public Schools for over 30 years. She taught me the importance of having access to a high-quality, public education that allows you to grow – to reach for your shot at success.

Every single child in the US deserves that experience.

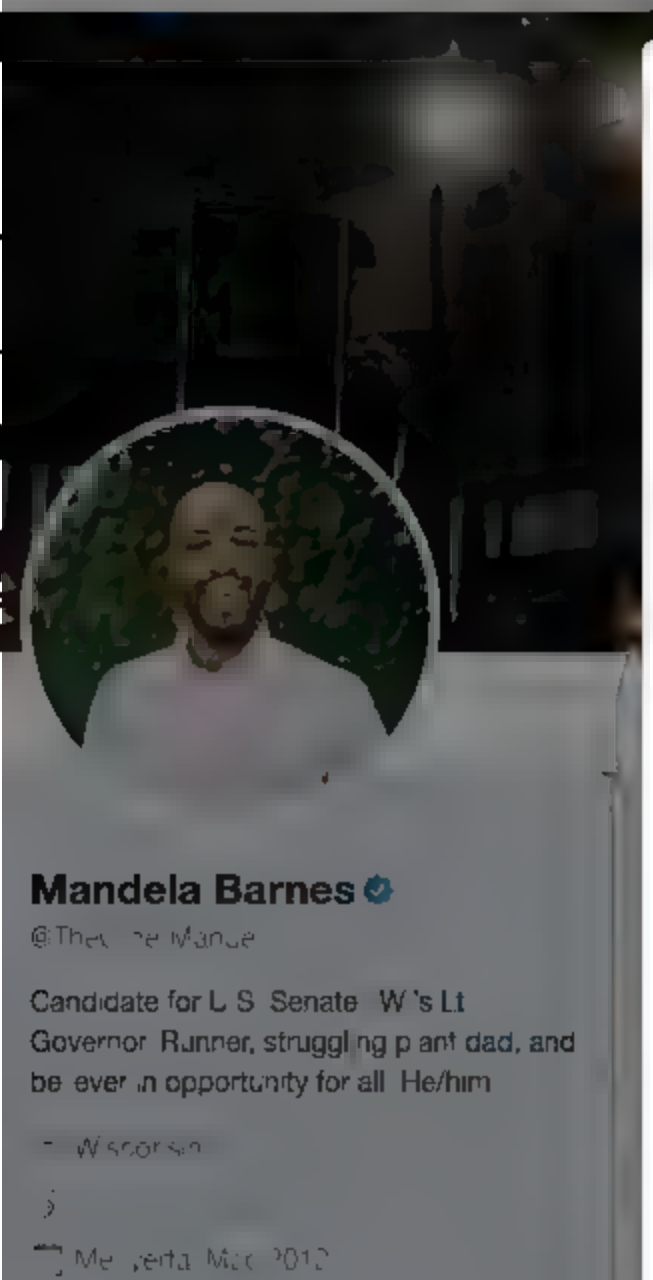
I am thinking of everyone affected by the shooting in MKE last night. Sending my prayers for a speedy recovery to all.



This kind of violence is devastating. Far too many have already been lost, including friends and family of mine. We need to pass common sense gun reform.

Milwaukee. Buffalo. Orange County.

3 mass shootings this weekend. 198 mass shootings that have occurred this year.

I know the pain of losing someone to gun violence personally. How much more loss will it take for us to pass common sense gun reform?

Ron Johnson got an F on the report card. He:

❌ Voted against the John Lewis Voting Rights Act
❌ Refused to stand up to Corporate PACs
❌ Killed efforts to restore ethics and accountability

All while securing tax breaks for his biggest donors. Enough is enough.

If Roe is overturned, WI reverts to an abortion restriction law from 1849.

That was 16 years before slavery was abolished. And 71 years before women won the right to vote.

We will never stop fighting for our freedoms. The GOP will not drag us into the past.

There are too many millionaires in the Senate who have no idea what the rest of us are facing. Prices go up while wages stay the same and working Americans can't keep up.

I'm not like the millionaires in the Senate. I'll fight as hard for your families as you do.

Outstanding first ad from @TheOtherMandela. The Wisconsin Lieutenant Governor and U.S. Senate candidate gets high marks from my mom, as the ad was filmed in the grocery store her father — my grandfather — opened more than 60 years ago.

Today, I talked to a doctor who told me a patient of hers asked if she could go back to work two weeks after delivery. She didn't want to. But she couldn't afford to take more time than that off. This isn't the American dream. But it is the American reality for too many.

Your voice = your vote 💥

When we get to the ballot box, we're unstoppable. That's EXACTLY why the GOP is trying so hard to restrict the right to vote.

Less than three months to the primary. Less than six months to the general. Let's get this done.

Ron Johnson's partisan games have real consequences on our lives. We're already sending people to IL for things they deserve here in WI — we must put a stop to this.

We are going to protect Roe, make the Senate work for working families, and give everyone in Wisconsin a fair shot. Thank you to [redacted] for all the support and for joining us in Wisconsin this weekend for two amazing events.

I promised myself something when I started this campaign: take no vote and no person for granted.

Every single person deserves to be heard. When I'm Senator, I will not serve big donors or special interests. I'll serve every single Wisconsinite.

SCOTUS may rule on Roe as soon as tomorrow. This is a hard moment – but one we saw coming from a mile away.

We will not let the GOP drag us back in time. Daughters will not have fewer rights than their mothers. We will not stop fighting until we protect Roe and protect women.

Ron Johnson wants to drag us back to 1849 when women had no access to abortion and no ability to make decisions about their own bodies.

Well, I won't let him.

Every day that passes without marijuana legalization in Wisconsin is a day that injustices go uncorrected and our economy misses out on a $33 billion industry.

During [redacted] we celebrate the many contributions and achievements of the AAPI community, but must also address the rise in anti-Asian discrimination and hate. Let's uplift and amplify AAPI voices and commit to building a nation where they are safe and supported.

Roe is on the line in November. In the Senate I'll vote to abolish the filibuster and make Roe law. I'll vote to legalize marijuana in the Senate.

Every single day hundreds of thousands of Americans wake up, put in a full day's work, and only make $7.25 an hour. They put in the time and the work and still don't earn enough to live on and to support their family.

The math doesn't add up. It's time for change.

My heart is breaking for Texas. No one should be afraid to send their kids to school. No one should be afraid to go to work. This is devastating and it shouldn't take loss like this to pass common sense gun legislation. This shouldn't have happened in the first place.

A powerful message worth your watch. We have 50 senators who can act on common sense gun legislation right now. There is no excuse. They must act.

With the right laws, we can prevent school shootings. Don't let anyone tell you otherwise. Congress needs to act immediately. Here's what they can do:

10:49 AM · 25 May 2022

1

Mandela Barnes @TheOtherMandela · 17s

➡️ Pass legislation that prevents "children" from purchasing guns. Almost 1 million high school students can legally purchase an AR-15 (gun used in 6/10 deadliest mass shootings)

1

➡️ Pass Extreme Risk laws so law enforcement can intervene when someone shows warning signs and prevent shootings from happening in the first place.

➡️ Pass Child Access Prevention laws, so that kids cannot get access to guns left in the home that are unsecured.

Ron Johnson literally just took a bill to the Senate floor that would put MORE guns in schools. This is just absurd. ENOUGH.

Keeping Ron Johnson in the Senate will put our kids at risk.

You cannot claim you're the pro-life party when your inaction leads to children being murdered at their desks. Actions speak louder than words.

The GOP has had every opportunity to create change and save lives and they haven't. So we're going to change who we send to DC.

When we called a special session to address gun violence, Republican legislators literally walked out of the room.

So these students are standing up. They're walking out and protesting because the GOP walked away.

Incredibly proud that they are our future.

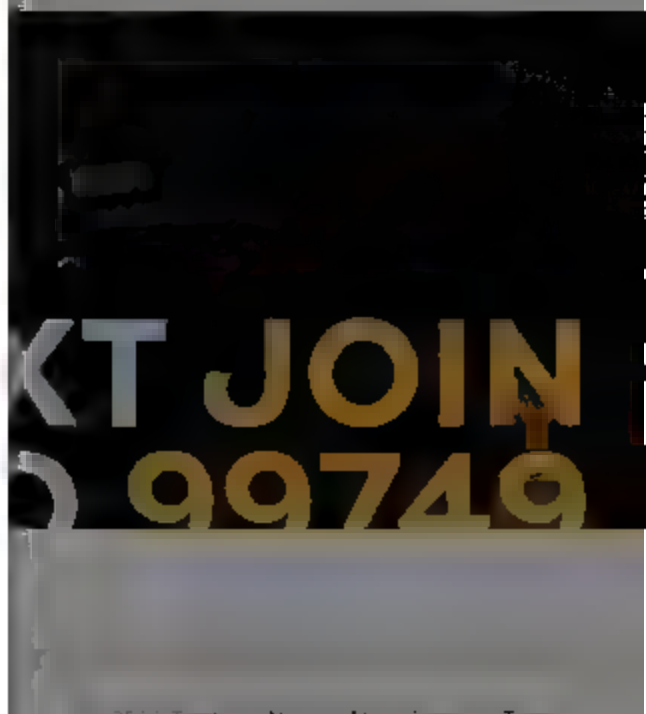
The NRA and their political contributions are the reason Congress isn't passing common sense gun reform.



It's time to represent the people, not the gun lobby. Every person running for office should reject money from the gun lobby.

This has been a horrific and heartbreaking week.

But I want to say this: we the people are not powerless. Never forget your voice or your vote.

Together, we are going to build a country where no parent is ever afraid to send their kids to school in the morning.

The tragedy in Uvalde was the 27th school shooting in America this year. 27 times, kids went to school and were met with horror and death.

We are the only nation where this could happen 27 times and nothing would be done to prevent a 28th. We cannot live this way any longer.

Ron Johnson took $1.2million from the gun lobby and then went on Fox news and blamed school shootings on “teaching wokeness".....

I'm Mandela Barnes. And I'm the guy that's going to beat him in November.

The Senate could act today to stop a school shooting from happening again but people like Ron Johnson choose to stay silent and keep the money from the NRA flowing in.

How many more times will they allow this to happen? We deserve better. Our kids deserve better.

And in recent news, $3.5 million in donations to Ron Johnson can buy you $200 million in tax breaks!

When I beat Ron Johnson in November, I promise I will work to put money in the pockets of middle class families instead of billionaires.

Ron Johnson just said that losing abortion access "might be a little messy for some people" but he considers it a non-issue.

"A little messy". That's what he thinks about millions of people losing their right to choose. His actions are not only disappointing – they're dangerous.

I grew up in the heart of Milwaukee. My parents' union jobs were our ticket to the middle class. But things are getting harder and harder for working people.

I understand your struggles because they are my struggles too. We deserve better than we're getting.

When abortion access is restricted, it is women of color, working-class women, and women in rural areas who are hit the hardest.

This is yet another instance of the GOP leaving Americans behind – and it will have deadly consequences.

Excited to announce we collected nearly 5,000 signatures and I filed to be on the ballot for Senate!

When I beat Ron Johnson, I'm going to abolish the filibuster, pass common sense gun reform, codify Roe and make sure everyone gets a fair shot. I'm going to do the work he won't.

The Supreme Court is reportedly voting to strike down Roe v. Wade. The Senate must immediately act to eliminate the filibuster and protect abortion rights and access to reproductive health care.

Family farmers are the backbone of WI – and they deserve a Senator who will fight for them. I'll ensure they get the first shot at federal funds, crack down on big ag monopolies, and invest in rural infrastructure. Read about my Grow Wisconsin plan here:

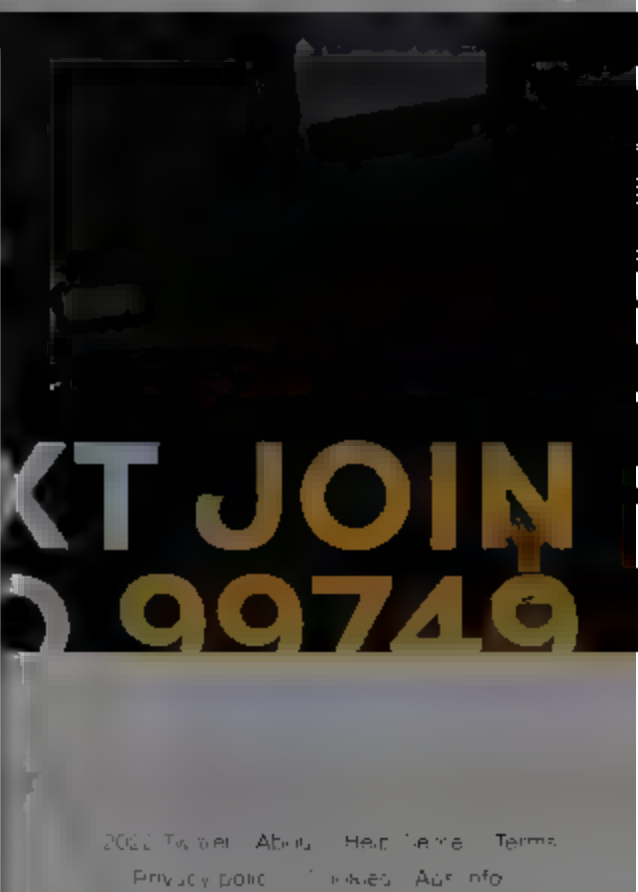
I'm heartbroken to hear about the shooting in Racine. My thoughts are with the victims, their families, and first responders.



We're exhausted from receiving news like this again and again. All of this loss, this pain...and for what? People are suffering. We need action.

UAW Local 180 workers have been on strike for four weeks while CNHi brings in non-union scab labor, cuts off their insurance, and negotiates in bad faith. They deserve better. Proud to join them again on the picket line today and bring groceries to help out UAW families.

The GOP profits off of the gun lobby and the gun lobby profits off of our demise. All they care about is their money – and Americans die because of that.

Yesterday, I sat down with local leaders in MKE to discuss how we can put an end to this and pass common sense gun reform.

Awareness is important—but we need action NOW. We need to tell the lawmakers in DC we refuse to live this way. And if they won't change this, we're going to change the people we send there.

Abortion is health care. The right to choose is fundamental.

It's that simple – and any legislator who says it isn't does not deserve their office.

Thank you for kicking off this morning right! The people in this room know: it's not enough to just talk about how bad Ron Johnson is. We have to lead with our vision. Our values. We have to show up everywhere. And in November we're going to win doing it.

I know what it's like to lose someone to gun violence — that's a pain that far too many people have felt.

I [redacted] because we deserve so much better. And as WI's Senator, I'm going to make sure we pass common sense gun reform and protect Americans from this pain.

This race isn't about red or blue, or black or white. It's about who's been at the top and who's been left at the bottom. I'm going to the Senate to make sure everyone has a fair shot at the American dream. Thank you Dunn County Dems for having me

In 2018, I ran for Lt. Governor, and we had the highest midterm turnout in the history of the state ever. This year, we have to do it again—and then some. Thank you, Jackson County, for doing the hard work, knocking on doors, and turning people out to get it done.

Wondering how Ron Johnson could defend the NRA in light of the horror we've faced due to gun violence this year? Simple answer – they've given him >$1.2 million. More than Mitch McConnell.

His corruption has no limits. There is nothing he won't sacrifice to please his donors.

We kicked Scott Walker out in 2018, and now we're going to send Ron Johnson packing.

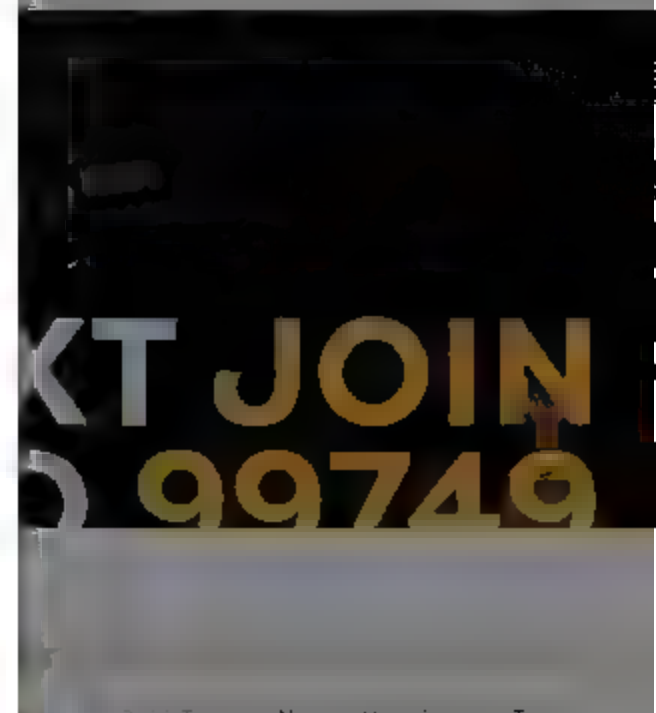
We were the first state to send an openly gay senator, the incredible Senator [redacted], to DC.



We have always fought hard for LGBTQ+ rights. And we aren't done yet.

Every single person in this nation is close to an abortion story, whether they know it or not. It's an essential health care service – and a choice that every person should be able to make without fear or judgment.

An America without Roe is a less free, less just place.

The Supreme Court is reportedly voting to strike down Roe v. Wade. The Senate must immediately act to eliminate the filibuster and protect abortion rights and access to reproductive health care.

The multi-millionaires in the Senate have no idea what it's like to deal with the child care crisis. But every time I meet with people, I hear about the toll it's taking on working families.

I'm going to the Senate because they deserve relief. Not next year, not next month —now.

In 1849, Wisconsin didn't have electricity or running water. The Civil War was a decade away, and women didn't have the right to vote.

If Roe is overturned right now, we revert to an anti-abortion law from 1849. We cannot allow Ron Johnson to drag us back in time.

The Supreme Court is reportedly voting to strike down Roe v. Wade. The Senate must immediately act to eliminate the filibuster and protect abortion rights and access to reproductive health care.

Right now I'm at the March for our Lives rally in Madison. How many of these marches do we have to have? How many kids do we have to lose? For Ron Johnson, there is no limit. We need policy change, and if our legislators won't get it done we're voting them out.

6 years ago, 49 people were murdered at the Pulse nightclub. Years later, we're STILL experiencing the same violence and hate.

The Senate has a bill to address it. It won't do everything we want. But it will bring us a step forward and I wouldn't hesitate a second voting for it.

My friend [redacted] and I are two tall, bald guys just trying to get the job done.

And in the Senate, we're going to pass fair tax laws, protect Roe, and make sure that every person gets their fair shot.

In 1849, Wisconsin didn't have electric ty or runn ng water. The Civil War was a decade away, and women didn't have the right to vote.

If Roe is overturned right now, we revert to an anti-abortion law from 1849. We cannot allow Ron Johnson to drag us back n time

Americans are struggling with high gas prices, and yet today, every single Republican in the House voted AGAINST a bill that would protect people from gas $$$ surges.

The GOP only cares about their special interest groups and donors—and working people are paying the price.

The average CEO makes $670 for every $1 that a worker makes. CEOs are counting their $$$ while working people are worrying if they can afford groceries. And Ron Johnson does nothing but profit off of this inequality.

We should all be tired of the millionaires in the Senate who talk a big game about protecting working people and then do nothing but rake in $$$ from their shares in Big Pharma and Big Oil.

It's literally cheaper to send your child to college in Wisconsin than it is to send them to daycare.

?????????? That's insanity.

Bring back the child tax credit. Pass the Child Care for Working Families Act. No family should spend more than 7% of their income on child care.

This race isn't about red vs. blue, or left vs. right, or us vs. them. This race is about who is on top and who has been left at the bottom.

I know what it feels like to be left behind – and I'm in this race because we deserve a Senate that works for us too.

Watching these hearings, I can't help but wonder: does Ron Johnson still think this was just a "peaceful protest?" Does he still think this wasn't an insurrection?

9 out of 10 LGBTQ+ students reported that they were harassed last year. And one-third of them were physically assaulted at school.

They deserve so much better than this. Every single kid deserves to grow up as they are without fear of discrimination or violence.

These days, it feels like the deck is stacked against us. We don't want hand-outs – we just want a fair shot. And together, we're going to fight to make sure we get it.

Thank you, [redacted], for having me! The energy and vision you bring to this fight is always inspiring.

UAW Local 180 workers have been on strike for 6 WEEKS, fighting hard for fair pay and conditions. As the son of Jesse Barnes, UAW Local 1866, I am always proud to join them and to stand with them until we win.

And thank you to Sen [illegible] for coming out to fight with us!

The destruction of rights is already beginning.

But I will NOT stop fighting. Until we make Roe law. Until we protect women.

Abortion is health care, and the right to choose is fundamental. Period.

Better is possible. We know that because here in Wisconsin, we have a proud history of changemakers who stood up and stood tall for what's right. And that's our job now.

Great to be at the Racine Juneteenth Sneaker Ball honoring the trailblazers who have led the way

Happy Juneteenth from Madison! The theme of this year's celebration is Black Resilience: Embracing the Past to Define the Future. I love that. We're honoring the changemakers who came before us and continuing their fight to make a better future for us and everyone after us.

Headed to Racine to keep the Juneteenth celebration going! Really glad to be here to share my story and to listen and learn. As much as I'm celebrating the past today, I'm celebrating the future we're going to build.

There are too many millionaires in the Senate who have no idea what the rest of us are facing. Prices go up while wages stay the same and working Americans can't keep up.

I'm not like the millionaires in the Senate. I'll fight as hard for your families as you do.

There are too many millionaires in the Senate who have no idea what the rest of us are facing. Prices go up while wages stay the same and working Americans can't keep up.

I'm not like the millionaires in the Senate. I'll fight as hard for your families as you do.

We need to show up in every county and every community. We need to listen to everyone and prove better is possible.

I've always believed that. Starting from my days as an organizer in my hometown to today. And that's what I'll continue to do as Senator.

If Roe gets struck down, there are states where courts can use online medical information to throw women who have had abortions in jail.

This is not freedom or justice. This is not the country we deserve. We need to protect Roe and protect women now.

I would say it's unbelievable that Ron Johnson tried to overturn the election with fake elector information.

But those of us in Wisconsin can believe it just fine. He has always lied and cheated to serve his own interests. And that's why we will send him packing this November.

Ron Johnson defended the insurrectionists and attempted to give Mike Pence fake elector documents.

He tried to destroy our democratic process. Because he doesn't care about anything but his own interests – and he'll do anything to protect them.

Ron Johnson just voted NO on the Bipartisan Gun Safety Bill.

The NRA is really getting what they paid for with the $1.2 million they gave him. Ron Johnson keeps on profiting from the gun lobby – and sacrificing people's safety to do it.

Honored to receive IBEW Local 2150's endorsement today. They have always fought hard to protect labor, stand up for workers, and work to mitigate the effects of climate change. Together, we're going to take that fight to the floor of the Senate this fall.

I'm in this race because I've got skin in this game. We deserve better than we're getting.

The people that the multi-millionaires in the Senate left behind are my family. My community. Middle class people just like us across the nation. I'm going to the Senate to fight for us.

I know what it feels like to lose someone to gun violence – no one should have to experience that.

I've always fought for common sense gun reform. If I were in the Senate today, I would be proud to vote for the Bipartisan Gun Safety Bill. We need to start making progress NOW.

My heart is heavy for the people killed and injured in Highland Park today, and the families mourning. A day where we should be celebrating and coming together turned into a heartless act of violence. Violence like this has no place in our country.

Reminder: Ron Johnson tried to use fake electors to overturn the election (and then tried to blame his sedition on an intern).

Not only does he not deserve to be a Senator, he is also the world's worst boss.

A multimillionaire senator like Ron Johnson has no idea what a third-shift autoworker like my dad or a public school teacher like my mom are facing these days. It feels like the deck is stacked against us.

If we want to change DC, we have to change the people we send there.

The Senate is broken. It works for multimillionaires and special interest groups but not for me or my community or working and middle-class people just like us across America.

Change won't happen in DC unless we change the people that we send there.

I'm so proud of this team. We raised $2.1 million last quarter with an average contribution of just $35. That's the power of a grassroots team, and it's exactly why we're going to beat Ron Johnson in November.

We could literally add millions to our local economies in Wisconsin and correct and prevent a huge injustice in our carceral system right now.

It doesn't end with Roe. They are coming for contraception and gay rights next.

Everything is on the line right now.

Matt Ford @fordm · Jun 24
In a solo concurring opinion Thomas says the court should reconsider rulings that protect contraception same-sex relationships and same-sex marriage
Show this thread

THOMAS, J., concurring

381 U. S. 479 (1965) (right of married persons to obtain contraceptives)*; Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U. S. 558 (2003) (right to engage in private, consensual sexual acts); and Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U. S. 644 (2015) (right to same-sex marriage), are not at issue. The Court's abortion cases are unique, see ante, at 31–32, 66, 71–72, and no party has asked us to decide "whether our entire Fourteenth Amendment jurisprudence must be preserved or revised," McDonald, 561 U. S., at 813 (opinion of THOMAS, J.). Thus, I agree that "[n]othing in [the Court's] opinion should be understood to cast doubt on precedents that do not concern abortion." Ante, at 66.

For that reason, in future cases, we should reconsider all of this Court's substantive due process precedents, including Griswold, Lawrence, and Obergefell. Because any substantive due process decision is "demonstrably erroneous," Ramos v. Louisiana, 590 U. S. ___, ___ (2020) (THOMAS, J., concurring in judgment) (slip op., at 7), we have a duty to "correct the error" established in those precedents, Gamble v. United States, 587 U. S. ___, ___ (2019) (THOMAS, J., concurring) (slip op., at 9). After overruling these demonstrably erroneous decisions, the question would remain whether other constitutional provisions guarantee the myriad rights that our substantive due process cases have generated. For example, we could consider whether any of the rights announced in this Court's substantive due process cases are "privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States" protected by the Fourteenth Amendment. Amdt.

Griswold v. Connecticut purported not to rely on the Due Process Clause, but rather reasoned "that specific guarantees in the Bill of Rights"—including rights enumerated in the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Ninth Amendments—"have penumbras, formed by emanations," that create "zones of privacy." 381 U. S., at 484. Since Griswold, the Court, perhaps recognizing the facial absurdity of Griswold's penumbral argument, has characterized the decision as one rooted in substantive due process. See, e.g., Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U. S. 644, 663 (2015);

It doesn't end with Roe. They are coming for contraception and gay rights next.

Everything is on the line right now.

Matt Ford @fordm Jun 24
In a solo concurring opinion, Thomas says the court should reconsider rulings that protect contraception, same-sex relationships, and same-sex marriage.
Show this thread

THOMAS, J., concurring

381 U. S. 479 (1965) (right of married persons to obtain contraceptives)*; Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U. S. 558 (2003) (right to engage in private, consensual sexual acts); and Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U. S. 644 (2015) (right to same-sex marriage), are not at issue. The Court's abortion cases are unique, see ante, at 31–32, 66, 71–72, and no party has asked us to decide "whether our entire Fourteenth Amendment jurisprudence must be preserved or revised," McDonald, 561 U. S., at 813 (opinion of THOMAS, J.). Thus, I agree that "[n]othing in [the Court's] opinion should be understood to cast doubt on precedents that do not concern abortion." Ante, at 66.

For that reason, in future cases, we should reconsider all of this Court's substantive due process precedents, including Griswold, Lawrence, and Obergefell. Because any substantive due process decision is "demonstrably erroneous," Ramos v. Louisiana, 590 U. S. ___, ___ (2020) (THOMAS, J., concurring in judgment) (slip op., at 7), we have a duty to "correct the error" established in those precedents, Gamble v. United States, 587 U. S. ___, ___ (2019) (THOMAS, J., concurring) (slip op., at 9). After overruling these demonstrably erroneous decisions, the question would remain whether other constitutional provisions guarantee the myriad rights that our substantive due process cases have generated. For example, we could consider whether any of the rights announced in this Court's substantive due process cases are "privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States" protected by the Fourteenth Amendment. Amdt.

Griswold* v. Connecticut purported not to rely on the Due Process Clause, but rather reasoned "that specific guarantees in the Bill of Rights"—including rights enumerated in the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Ninth Amendments—"have penumbras, formed by emanations," that create "zones of privacy." 381 U. S., at 484. Since Griswold, the Court, perhaps recognizing the facial absurdity of Griswold's penumbral argument, has characterized the decision as one rooted in substantive due process. See, e.g., Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U. S. 644, 663 (2015);

In my years of serving WI and fighting to protect working families, I've always been proud to work side-by-side with @afscme32 — and today, I'm incredibly proud to receive their endorsement.

Everyone is close to an abortion story, whether they know it or not. I might not be here today if my mom hadn't been able to make that choice for herself.

Abortion is a personal and medical decision that everyone should be able to make without shame or impediment.

@TheOtherMandela

Joe Manchin just shut down a bill that would've created thousands of good jobs and helped to tackle the climate crisis.

Make no mistake, this is what's on the line in November. We need a 51st vote to make change for working people — and that's exactly what I'll be.

We don't need another multimillionaire in the Senate. I come from a hard-working, union family, and I understand the pain of rising costs. The people that have been left behind are middle class people just like us across the US.

I'm running because we deserve better.

The loss of Roe affects YOU – and by YOU, I mean everyone. We are all close to an abortion story, whether we know it or not.

In the Senate, I will fight to make sure that no woman ever has to live in fear or be restricted from making decisions about her own reproductive health.

Working people and family farmers are losing out because of bad trade deals – and big corporations are making off like bandits. Meanwhile, Ron Johnson is sending our jobs overseas.

Not anymore. I am going to the Senate to make it work for working people.

Trans youth need to be protected from adults who act like children in legislative bodies across the country.

I am fighting for a fair shot for every single person – and that means that every single person has the right to live as they are without fear or discrimination.

I was in high school when I lost my first friend to gun violence. That is a loss that no one should have to experience – and yet, so many people do.

I am going to the Senate to pass common-sense gun reform. We cannot continue to live this way.

The factory that my dad worked at made catalytic converters. It wouldn't have been up and running if the Clean Air Act wasn't passed in the 1960s.

Most people support marriage equality. Most of the House GOP members just voted against it

They'll stop at nothing to strip us of our rights. I won't let them

In DC, there are people on both sides who talk a big game but profit off of our struggles. No more — we just want our fair shot.

Great to be with SEIU and @AFT_Local_212 last week! Together, we are going to fight hard for working people and win.

I got my start in public service fighting for our unions – and I am the son of a teacher and a 3rd shift auto factory worker. So I could not be more proud to be endorsed by @AFTWisconsin. I can't wait to take our fight for working people to the Senate floor.

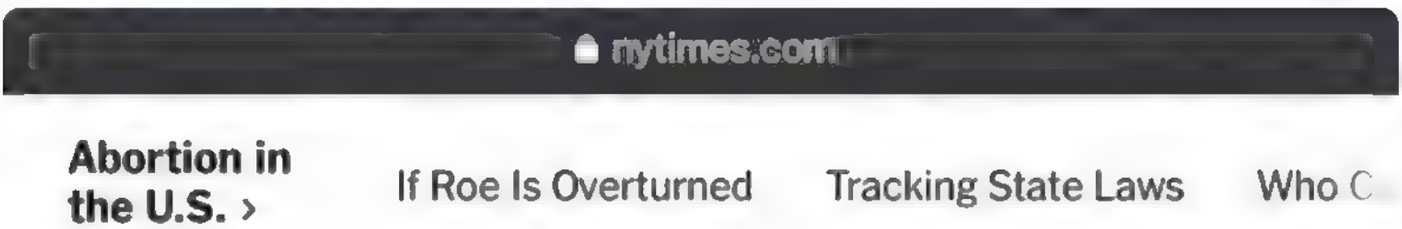
It should be an EASY choice to protect same-sex marriage and defend LGBTQ+ rights. And yet most Republicans in the Senate either stand against it or refuse to take a stance.



They are on a mission to strip us of our rights, and we have to stop them.

Never forget they could have done this in 2008 but send them $15

But even as Mr. Obama has delighted abortion rights advocates, he has dialed back some earlier ambitions. In 2007, he promised Planned Parenthood that "the first thing I'd do as president" would be to sign the Freedom of Choice Act, which effectively codifies Roe v. Wade. Now he says the bill is "not my highest legislative priority," as he put it at a recent news conference.

Ope! I got two anti-union, pro-outsourcing, self-serving politicians mixed up there for a second. They sure have a lot in common — but most of all, that I'm going to send Ron Johnson packing just like Tony Evers and I sent Walker packing in 2018.

Wisconsinites sent Ron Johnson to the Senate to serve and support them. Instead, he's spent his time enriching himself and his wealthy donors, selling out workers, and sending our jobs overseas. Enough is enough.

Three things you should know about me:

1. I am from a middle-class family in the heart of MKE

3. I'm going to the Senate for all of us who are getting squeezed out by big corporations and multimillionaires

Child care. Social security. Marriage equality. The right to choose.

These are all things we NEED that Ron Johnson has refused to fight for. At every single turn, he's made it clear: he is in it for himself, not for Wisconsin.

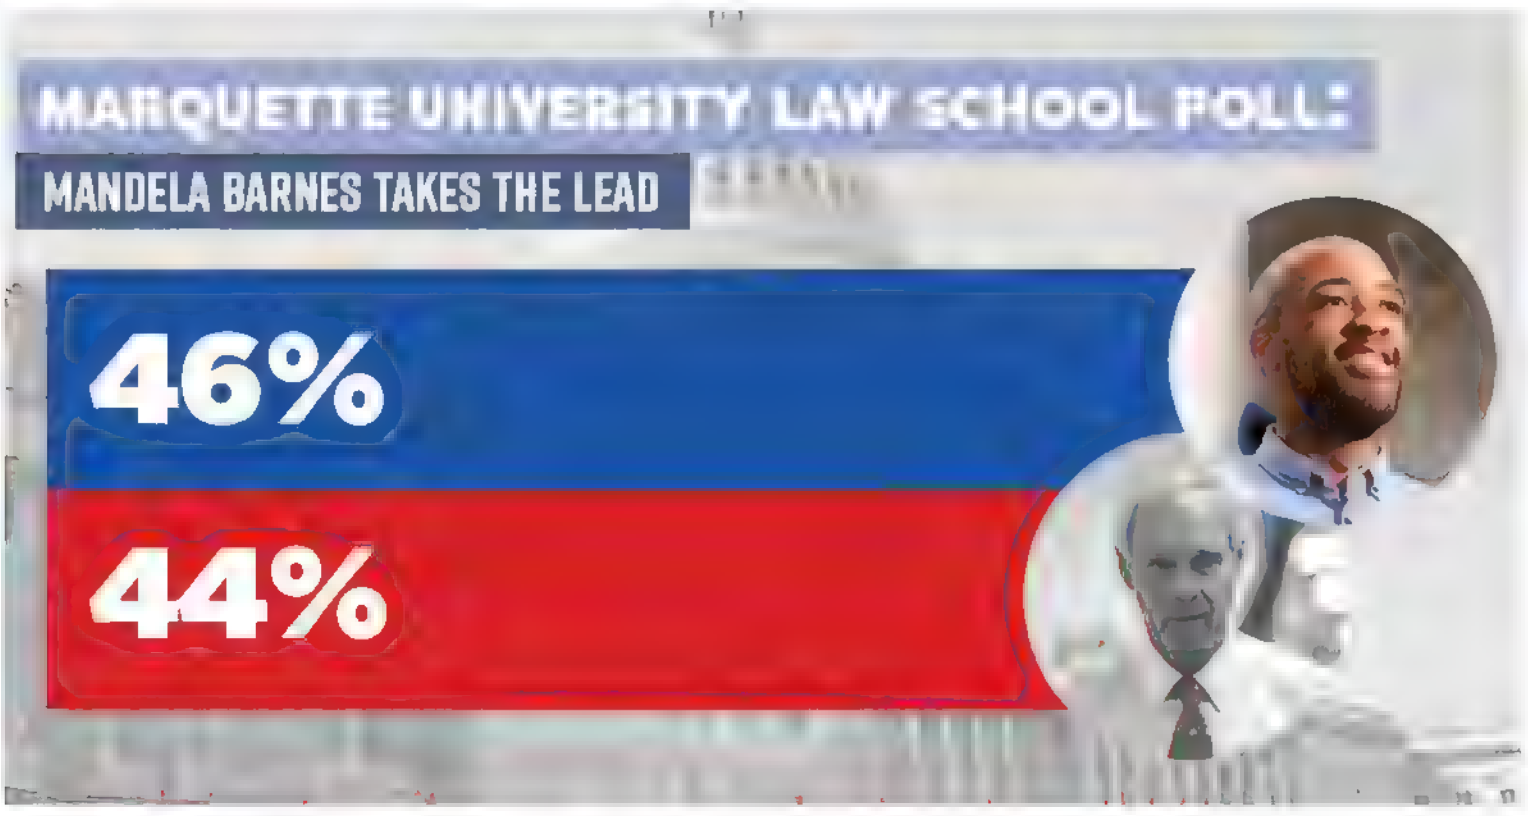
There are too many millionaires in the Senate who have no idea what the rest of us are facing. Prices go up while wages stay the same and working Americans can't keep up.



I'm not like the millionaires in the Senate. I'll fight as hard for your families as you do.

No one should have to choose between a medication their life depends on and putting food on the table. But Ron Johnson doesn't care—he's bought and paid for by the pharma lobby.

I know the pain of losing someone to gun violence personally. No one should have to experience that – and far too many people have already.

Thank you so much for your support, @GabbyGiffords and @GiffordsCourage. I will never stop fighting for common sense gun reform.

> Giffords @GiffordsCourage 2h
> Lt. Gov. @TheOtherMandela has always been a vocal supporter of commonsense gun reform. He led the charge in the state legislature, and as LG, he worked with Gov. Evers to bolster public safety. We know he'll continue to make gun safety a top priority in the US Senate. #WISen

You got 390k votes with 84k going towards other candidates.

Considering WI is a 42/42 D v R split with 16% independent and they lean conservative usually, you got a rough fight ahead of you bud.

Jesse Barnes, not Mandela

Jesse Mandela Barnes (born December 1, 1986) is an American politician who has served as the 45th Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin since 2019.[1] A member of the Democratic Party, he previously served as the Wisconsin State Representative for the 11th district from 2013 to 2017. Barnes is the first African American to assume the state's lieutenant governorship. He is currently the Democratic nominee in the 2022 U.S. Senate election in Wisconsin, challenging incumbent Republican Senator Ron Johnson.[2]

Sen. @TammyBaldwin has been without a real partner in the Senate for too long — and instead of helping her serve Wisconsin, Ron Johnson has tried to undermine us at every turn.

Ron Johnson's going to throw everything he's got at us. But we won't let that stop us. Because we're in this to rebuild the middle class and bring our jobs back home, and we won't stop until we win.

Poor Ron Johnson. But not ~ actually ~

He's very rich BUT he's very sad he only doubled his personal wealth in office 😮 ????

Last time I checked, his job in the Senate was to serve the people of Wisconsin, not sit there and count his $$$

Ron Johnson is threatening to cut Social Security and Medicare.

~surprise surprise~ the self-serving, multimillionaire Senator is trying to strip working people of the Social Security and Medicare benefits they've earned over a lifetime of hard work.

I think you can hit harder on this.

Seniors would be insane to approve of this now

Workers would be insane to approve this if they ever want to retire

Buying your own health insurance at 65+ would be cost prohibitive to all but the fabulously rich

US Senate candidate, W

Ron Johnson is threatening to cut Social Security and Medicare.

~surprise surprise~ the self-serving, multimillionaire Senator is trying to strip working people of the Social Security and Medicare benefits they've earned over a lifetime of hard work.

I think you can hit harder on this.

Seniors would be insane to approve of this now

Workers would be insane to approve this if they ever want to retire

Buying your own health insurance at 65+ would be cost prohibitive to all but the fabulously rich

From celebrating the loss of Roe to praising outsourcing to supporting cuts to Social Security, Ron Johnson has consistently made the worst choices possible for Wisconsin.

Ron Johnson's suggestion to cut Social Security would put the benefits of nearly 1 million retirees in Wisconsin at risk.

He has no respect for elderly Wisconsinites. He has no respect for anyone – except, of course, the special interest donors who line his pockets.

I got my start in politics as an organizer, and it has a special place in my heart.

That's why, on this campaign, we're always going to show up and do the work. No door goes un-knocked and no county or community gets left behind.

Where do we start... there have been some wild angles taken in stories lately. Security presence would obviously increase if more work is being done, a parking ticket is a rights of passage in Milwaukee, and yes, a bill sat on the refrigerator a little too long.

Deep in the story is when you find out that the Treasurer's Office was sending my tax bill to an entirely different STATE. Most people I know have bills on the counter or in the drawer, especially if you can't pay them online (which in the year of our Lord 2019 is unheard of)

We're not talking back taxes or impending foreclosure. You're far less likely to find someone WITHOUT a balance. All the "pAY uR TaXEs" trolls are weird because the alternative is not having a place to live, which would be worse than any news story

Family farms are at the ❤ of who we are as a state. They deserve a Senator that supports them just as much as they have supported us – and that's exactly what I'll be.

Thank you so much to Goplin Farm in Osseo for showing me around.

The filibuster – and the weapon it's become in the hands of the GOP – is what stands between us, our rights, and our freedoms.

I cannot wait to be the 51st vote we need in the Senate to put an end to it.

Ron Johnson's solution to the labor shortage: send seniors back to work.

He voted to raise the retirement age. He wants to slash Social Security. Why is Ron Johnson waging a war on our seniors and the benefits they've worked towards their entire lives?

Heartland Signal @HeartlandSignal · 9h

During his tele-town hall last night, Sen. Ron Johnson (R-WI) endorsed an "innovative" idea to address labor shortages: "coax" seniors to leave retirement and reenter the workforce so they can "earn a few extra bucks."

Ron Johnson has been very busy!!!

From voting against federal funding to trying to slash Social Security to raking in $$$ from companies that send our jobs out of state…his schedule must be packed!

How government aid helped Ron Johnson

A senator who votes against safety net programs benefited from government-sponsored financing for his business

Remember when Ron Johnson said he wanted to "coax" seniors back into the workforce to "earn a few extra bucks"? And that was his solution to the labor shortage?

We do. And this November we'll send him packing for the disrespect he has shown our seniors.

We have a difficult road to justice in America, and the verdicts we just witnessed in the Kyle Rittenhouse trial are just another example. While we can easily view this as a setback, we have to transform this moment. My full statement:

"Over the last few weeks, many dreaded the outcome we just witnessed. The presumption of innocence until proven guilty is what we should expect from our judicial system, but that standard is not always applied equally. We have seen so many black and brown youth killed, only to be put on trial posthumously, while the innocence of Kyle Rittenhouse was virtually demanded by the judge.

This is another example of the difficult road to justice in America, and while we can easily view this as a setback, we have to turn this into a moment to push even harder by staying engaged, by organizing for justice, by holding our leaders accountable, and by registering our friends and neighbors to vote. As elected leaders, myself and others have a special responsibility to lift up the voices of organizers, activists, and everyday people working for change. We must transform moments like this by raising our voices, together.

Across Wisconsin and across the country, countless people are coming together in this moment to honor Jacob, Anthony, JoJo, and call for justice. Here is what gives me hope: We have seen communities – especially Kenosha – step up to demand action from those in power and work to bring about positive change. We have the power to elect leaders at every level who represent our highest aspirations, who will fight alongside us for reform and progress. We all have the power to heal Kenosha and our nation."

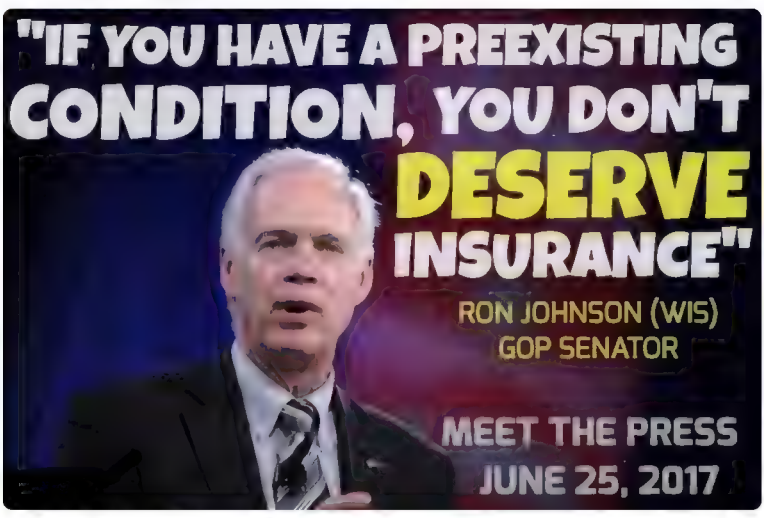
Honored to celebrate Labor Day in Milwaukee, Madison, and Racine with my parents and with so many of the working people and unions that fuel our state.



When I go to the Senate, you will never have to doubt who I'm working for – it's always for you.

We have a difficult road to justice in America, and the verdicts we just witnessed in the Kyle Rittenhouse trial are just another example. While we can easily view this as a setback, we have to transform this moment. My full statement:

Przetłumacz Twee a

"Over the last few weeks, many dreaded the outcome we just witnessed. The presumption of innocence until proven guilty is what we should expect from our judicial system, but that standard is not always applied equally. We have seen so many black and brown youth killed, only to be put on trial posthumously, while the innocence of Kyle Rittenhouse was virtually demanded by the judge.

This is another example of the difficult road to justice in America, and while we can easily view this as a setback, we have to turn this into a moment to push even harder by staying engaged, by organizing for justice, by holding our leaders accountable, and by registering our friends and neighbors to vote. As elected leaders, myself and others have a special responsibility to lift up the voices of organizers, activists, and everyday people working for change. We must transform moments like this by raising our voices, together.

Across Wisconsin and across the country, countless people are coming together in this moment to honor Jacob, Anthony, JoJo, and call for justice. Here is what gives me hope: We have seen communities – especially Kenosha – step up to demand action from those in power and work to bring about positive change. We have the power to elect leaders at every level who represent our highest aspirations, who will fight alongside us for reform and progress. We all have the power to heal Kenosha and our nation."

Dear Acting Director Vitiello:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, I request that you produce the following records related to the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement's activities in Wisconsin conducted during September 2018 that resulted in the arrest of 83 individuals. This request follows numerous attempts to gain access to this information dating back to initial contact on September 23, 2018.

We request that the agency produce all records pursuant to:

1. Contact between ICE officials/agents and local law enforcement prior to and during the enforcement actions, including the names of individuals contacted and the date, time, and outcome of each contact.
2. A list of the criminal offenses (or lack thereof) committed by the 83 detainees, broken down by individual while upholding privacy requirements by omitting personally identifiable information.
3. The offering and distribution of privacy release forms to allow for detainees to seek assistance from Congressional representatives and other relevant advocates.
4. The establishment and use of satellite office space in Madison and other locations beyond the official field office in Milwaukee, including any information detailing the amount of time ICE officials have utilized the satellite offices.

6. The number of people detained by county and a list of the counties in which they were housed upon arrest.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Remember when Ron Johnson sided with Oshkosh Defense when they brought 1,000 good jobs to SC instead of WI? Months before, he was supposed to set up a meeting between them and UAW Local 578…but he broke his word.

US Senate candidate, W

The filibuster – and the weapon it's become in the hands of the GOP – is what stands between us, our rights, and our freedoms.

I cannot wait to be the 51st vote we need in the Senate to put an end to it.

The filibuster – and the weapon it's become in the hands of the GOP – is what stands between us, our rights, and our freedoms.

I cannot wait to be the 51st vote we need in the Senate to put an end to it.

This is what will happen if we don't expand our Democratic majority in the Senate, abolish the filibuster and codify Roe.

We have a difficult road to justice in America, and the verdicts we just witnessed in the Kyle Rittenhouse trial are just another example. While we can easily view this as a setback, we have to transform this moment. My full statement:

"Over the last few weeks, many dreaded the outcome we just witnessed. The presumption of innocence until proven guilty is what we should expect from our judicial system, but that standard is not always applied equally. We have seen so many black and brown youth killed, only to be put on trial posthumously, while the innocence of Kyle Rittenhouse was virtually demanded by the judge.

This is another example of the difficult road to justice in America, and while we can easily view this as a setback, we have to turn this into a moment to push even harder by staying engaged, by organizing for justice, by holding our leaders accountable, and by registering our friends and neighbors to vote. As elected leaders, myself and others have a special responsibility to lift up the voices of organizers, activists, and everyday people working for change. We must transform moments like this by raising our voices, together.

Across Wisconsin and across the country, countless people are coming together in this moment to honor Jacob, Anthony, JoJo, and call for justice. Here is what gives me hope: We have seen communities – especially Kenosha – step up to demand action from those in power and work to bring about positive change. We have the power to elect leaders at every level who represent our highest aspirations, who will fight alongside us for reform and progress. We all have the power to heal Kenosha and our nation."

US Senate candidate. W

Thank you for sharing your story, Michael.

I couldn't agree more: Ron Johnson is a threat to Social Security and completely out of touch with what Wisconsinites need. We all deserve so much better.

Please start hitting everything Johnson voted against. The list is impressively long. What laws has he initiated. What exactly has he done in congress besides spend his 4th of July in Russia

Stop Ron Johnson

Congress has no "discretion" to alter Social Security benefits that workers have paid into and earned over their entire working life. He wants Congress to decide who gets a benefit and what the benefit would be!

Vote @TheOtherMandela to save Social Security!

Not the kind of change most of us are looking for… letting business burn, calling small business owners selfish,not paying your taxes, defunding police… need I go on?

US Senate candidate, WI

6 years ago when we kicked off the 11x15 campaign to cut the prison population in half, we could hardly find elected leaders or candidates to get onboard.

To see it embraced at a gubernatorial candidate forum makes me proud to have worked with such visionary organizers/activists

Each weekend i go through my garden and pull the weeds, but need to get it from the root, otherwise it grows back. Our children need care and nurturing from birth to adulthood. Through parenting, church, community, and schooling positive opportunities are imprinted in them.

Release criminals who will most likely re-offend is NOT wise! They are in prison and away from society for a reason!
